From the Pastor's Desk

There is a word that is sticking in my head. You, by now, know that part of being a pastor is being a wordsmith and that I like etymology, how a word came to mean what it means. The word that is coming at me is dignity. Bob Dylan wrote a great song called Dignity. In the song he strongly intimates that dignity should be a basic human right.

I was involved in a couple of food pantries in my last parishes and I noticed the marked difference between the two of them. In one pantry the food was gathered and put into grocery bags. Clients would check in, cards were pulled to make sure that it had been at least a month since they had last used the pantry, a box was checked, and a full grocery sack was handed to them and they were sent on their way. All are very bureaucratic and clinical and sterile. At the other pantry, I worked at the clients would check in and the person checking them in would visit with them and ask them if there were any changes in the last couple of weeks. Ask about health and news. Then the client was given a grocery cart and led through the pantry by a volunteer who took them to the vegetable shelf and told them how many cans of veggies they could take. Then the same thing at the fruit shelf. And the freezer. Plus there were shelves with bath soap, detergent, toothbrushes, and toothpaste. The clients took what they wanted, didn't have to take something they didn't like or were allergic to, and the mood of the pantry was light and joyous. This was trickle-down because that is how the person in charge of the pantry wanted it to run. There was more dignity at the pantry that treated the clients as if they were thinking feeling beings with tastes and interests. And where there was more dignity there was also joy.

I was doing a hospital visit for someone who had just been placed on hospice. He had cancer and they were finishing the treatment that had hospitalized him and was in the process of sending him home in the next day or two whenever the hospital bed was delivered to the living room of his home. He had ordered broiled cod for dinner from the hospital menu and though he had asked for whole milk and butter he was brought skim milk and margarine. Now whole milk and butter were options on the menu and he was a tenth-generation dairy farmer for whom drinking whole milk was considered a concession because he would rather have straight cream – and don't even talk about margarine. He was really upset that his tray was brought in with skim milk and margarine and it just deflated him so I asked if the dietician couldn't stop in quickly. A miracle happened and she came in. I asked her: "The menu says that whole milk and butter are options. He checks whole milk and butter. Yet he is constantly brought skim milk and margarine. Why?" She responded, "Because those things are bad for you." To which I said, "He asked for them. They are on the menu. It's his choice and I think the cancer is going to get him long before the dairy fat. Honor your word." She left and pretty soon the lowest paid newest pimply-faced kitchen employee was there with two whole milks and about a half pound of butter. My parishioner laughed, smiled, joked, and was himself again. All because I advocated for him to be a human being with wants, wishes, desires, and tastes.

Dignity comes from the Latin word dignus which means worthy. Dignity simply means to treat people as if they are worthy. The opposite of dignity would be contempt. What if the express mission of the Church was to treat all human beings with dignity? Love is a convoluted word with multiple meanings but in our understanding of dignity, I think we are very much on the same page. When I look at Christ in the Gospels there is a great deal of dignity in his exchanges with people – from treating the children as worthy to standing compassionately with the griever and touching the untouchables.

There are a number of people who appreciate the door opener here at church. The reason? Someone accounted for them and their situation and made continued mobility more possible.

I am proud of First Lutheran and believe that it is a place that bestows dignity. As long as we continue to do that and expand on that we will find the innate worth which is inside every person and that Jesus thought was worth risking the cross for.

In Christ,

Memorial & Endowment Notes:

Plant your seeds now and trust in the Lord that these seeds will bear fruit even when you are gone.

The Memorial and Endowment Committee will meet on Wednesday, May 10th at 4:15 pm to review and designate funding. The committee welcomes suggestions and invites you to let us know about a current project you are involved in that we could provide funding for. Please complete the online form by May 5th to be considered. If you prefer, you can download the form and drop it off or mail it to the church office.

In February, several requests were faithfully considered, and the committee voted to supply the FLC memorial garden brick project, a college student scholarship and the Sherman and Ruth Weiss Community Library from the Endowment fund.

OUTREACH COMMITTEE

When you think about the Outreach Committee you should think good works. Wednesday Night Dinner, Operation Christmas, Prayer Shawls, Paper Drive, School Supplies, Socks and Shoes, Men at Work, Quilters, etc. The oak bins in the Narthex are a consistent reminder of Jesus Christ calling us to meet the needs of the most vulnerable. During the month of May food pantries receive a small bounty from the biggest food drive every year – the US Postal Service. We encourage you to give food items during that drive but what we wish to emphasize is cash. A 14oz can in the grocery store costs anywhere from $1.50 to $5.00 depending on what is in it. But, with just one dollar a pantry can buy seven 14oz cans! Donating to the food pantry is a constant effort of the Outreach Committee – during the month of May we wish to encourage that we give dollars. Money allows the pantry to purchase what they might be lacking and, as you see, their spending of a food dollar goes a lot farther than ours.

Thank you for all you do that makes serving on the Outreach Committee so meaningful.

In Christ's Love,

The Outreach Committee

Directory - Reminder to please stop by the church and get your copy. We have put labels on each directory with your name on them. The directories are in alphabetical order. Each family unit will receive one copy. Please note that the cost to print was about $10 per copy. We have put an envelope in each directory if you are able or choose to make a $10 donation to help offset the cost. Your donation is completely optional.

Enjoy!

First Lutheran Community Park

Spring is in the air (finally) and so is our revitalized Community Park!

A lot to be thankful for this season. First and foremost, we continue to be grateful for the overwhelming support and generous donations to this project from not only our church family but our community at large. We have almost reached our fundraising goal, several pieces of the new equipment have been delivered, and we're set for tear-down and installation dates.

What's next and how can you be part of finalizing this project?

- Fish Fry: On Friday, May 5th we'll be hosting a fundraising Fish Fry at Treeland's Resort from 4PM-9PM. Come on out and enjoy a Northwoods Fish Fry, take part in meat raffles, and have some fun with friends and family. Thank you to Treeland's for donating all proceeds from this Fish Fry to the Community Park. (Pizza, chicken, appetizers, and kid's meals will be available for purchase also.)
- Bake Sale: On May 5th, at the fish fry, we will have a table set up for guests to purchase desserts to take home and enjoy. Please consider signing up to donate baked goods for our bake sale. You may contact us (below).
- Tear Down / Installation: If you are interested in helping during tear down of the old equipment and installation of the new equipment, please contact us (below).
- Financial Donation: If you'd like to help us on our final mile to reaching our fundraising goal, you may mail a check to the church, make an online donation, or reach out to us to discuss other giving options.

For more information on the above please contact Kris Treland-Neumann at 715-558-2796.

Blessings from the Community Park Task Team

CHILDREN, YOUTH, AND FAMILY MINISTRIES

Authentic, Affirming, Available!

(Characteristics of faithful followers of Jesus)

Meet Miss Janet (Rivard). Miss Janet helps lead Terrific Tuesday every week. Her caring, compassionate heart moved her to use fabric scraps to sew a quilt for a young boy from our community who faces severe health challenges. In this photo, she is sharing with our kids how she did this. She then had everyone hold the edges of the quilt and we prayed that this quilt of love would help remind Nolan that God was with him and we cared.

Miss Janet's big heart also moved her to use more of her fabric scraps to make a quilt for Addison. Her intent was wrapped in this quilt, Addison would be reminded and affirmed that God was with her as she anticipated and recovered from having her tonsils removed. Terrific Tuesday Kids and Leaders gathered around Addison and her love quilt for prayer before taking this picture.

Imagine the impact Miss Janet's authentic, affirming, available life is having our kids! We praise God for you, Miss Janet Rivard! Thank you for showing us Jesus!

"Jesus Christ is risen today! Alleluia!"

Pentecost is May 28

We will be displaying 45 geraniums to accent worship that weekend.

They are $5 a piece if you would like to claim some to take home after worship.

There will be a table in the Narthex and envelopes at the Welcome Center for the geranium sales.

Columbarium/Memorial Wall

With the coming of warm weather, work on the Memorial Garden can begin. The concrete work is scheduled for late spring and the Memorial Plaques are ready to be mounted. Also, there will be flowers planted in the boxes that have been empty, as soon as weather permits. It is an exciting time, and prayers are needed.

Niche and plaque prices remain the same for now. If you are contemplating purchasing either, or both, of these, now is the time.

You may contact any of the task force members for more information. Members are: Jerry and Kathy Rasmussen, Betty Beckman, Bob Badal and John and Corole Rusch.

Stewardship Committee Message

Spring Cleaning – Getting rid of “All the Crap”

And Jesus said to them “Take Care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed. For one’s life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.” Luke 12:13

The father of small children was commiserating about how hard it is to keep the house clean with energetic, active kids at home. “What really gets to me about cleaning the house is all the crap”.

Crap, not just the toys and stuffed animals that overflow from toy bins, under beds, and closets. The adult stuff too. The gadgets crowding the kitchen, cleaning products jammed under the sink, the stuff crammed in the medicine cabinet, the junk in the yard, and on and on.

The crap factor comes to mind in Jesus ‘Parable of “the rich fool” in Luke 12:17-20. The fool has so much stuff, he wants bigger barns to hold it all. The parable should hit home in America where accumulation necessitates self-storage units and makes them a booming business.

How cluttered is your house? Your mind? Your soul?

This month, consider a house cleaning to get rid of unneeded, unnecessary stuff. And prayerfully consider what “clutter” may be in your mind, heart, and soul as well. What needs to be tossed, recycled or donated in order that your house and your spirit can focus on what’s truly important? That is the things of GOD.

AN EVANGELICAL MINUTE THOUGH TIMES CHANGE

Hats off to the leaders of our youth here at First Lutheran Church. Recently, I had an opportunity to spend some time with them and learn some of what they aim for as they work and care for our young people. Recognizing that we learn and experience as we grow and carry this through life, they feel the importance for them of strengthening their families as well.

We talked about how the youth of today are faced with things unheard of in years past. One of which is the cell phone. It is said that it has more capabilities than the first rocket to the moon. This is just one of the many tech devices of today.

They recognize their efforts to involve each's home and family. Knowing we all as youth are influenced in various ways, parents are encouraged to join in and help youth in strengthening their faith. They can help them understand the important truth that though things may change in one's life, God's love is unconditional and will never change. Overall, parents play an important part in our faith life as well as our daily life.

God Our Father, Thank You, You are Our Forever God. Thank you for our families and especially our parents.

In Christ,

Amen

We were so pleased to see all of May was signed up for serving Wednesday night meals. At this time we are serving between 70 and 80 meals. We are serving both in-house and doing carry-outs - all from the fellowship kitchen window. However, June July and August are open for people to sign up. Maybe a family group or would be interested in serving, or an organization. It is a busy time of year for fun activities but hunger never stops. We hope you can take time in your busy schedule to serve a meal.

If you never served a meal, please ask the person in charge of the month if you can help and learn about doing it. (This is posted at the Welcoming Center in Church). The more hands we have the easier the task is.

We are still looking for a leader for another month. Thanks again to all who have helped in serving the Wednesday night meal for over 27 years. First Lutheran – Faith in Action – become part of the team.

On May 3, 2023, at 6 pm there is a meeting of all Wednesday night monthly leaders. If you are interested please come and learn about this important reach out. All are welcome.

COVER GIRLS

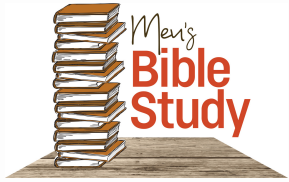

May 11th & 18th from 9 am to 11am

Cover girls (tie quilters) are busy making tie quilts. Some members tie quilts, others sew on sewing machines (we have three sewing machines at church), and still, others go through the material donated to get the material ready for the quilts. Our quilt tops are 60 inches by 80 inches. We make the bottoms 64 inches by 84 inches so the sides can be folded over to make a binding. (A few members make some of the tops and bottoms at home).

Thanks to the people who have cleaned out their closets and donated sheets, blankets, and washable material. With your help we are able to continue making these quilts.

We are so happy to have a group of dedicated Women working on the tie quilts. We meet two times a month on 2nd and 3rd Thursday of the month starting around 9 am. You are welcome to join us.

Women of First Lutheran

Not the End

The Easter season of the church year is here and spring has finally arrived! We are full of hope and expectations as we wait for all the signs of spring.

Recently Audrey Novak Riley had an article in Daily Grace by the Women of the ELCA. It included a quote that she had heard and then her comments – hope it gives you hope as it did me!

“Everything will be all right in the end, so if it is not all right, it is not yet the end.”

I thought that was a clever line when I first heard it and it's also a theological statement about Christian hope.

Mary Madalene followed Jesus, helping wherever she could, taking in everything he said and did, supporting his work out of her own pocket, encouraging other women to do the same, living in joyful hope.

When things went wrong, Mary Magdalene stuck with him. She stood at the foot of the cross, she even stayed to witness his burial. Yes, Mary Magdalene stuck with Jesus to the end, the bitterly disappointing end.

But it wasn't the end. When Mary Magdalene went back to Jesus' tomb early on that Sunday morning, she discovered to her joy that the story was not over. And that changed everything. Christ's resurrection is the source of our Christian hope.

May we all remember that when things don't seem alright, the story may not be over. Christ is our hope! Remember to check the Small Groups and Studies page for times of our Women's Circles, Cover Girls, Card Ladies, Purls of Prayer and Koinonia.

Blessings,
Carol Schmidt
