From the Pastor's Desk

By now you must know that my Repentance Season habit of gathering our own Kyries and Glorias is an exercise I value. The six Church seasons, Advent-Christmas-Epiphany-Lent-Easter-Pentecost basically go Repent-Celebrate-Grow-Repent-Celebrate-Grow. Memorial & Endowment Notes:

Plant your seeds now and trust in the Lord that these seeds will bear fruit even when you are gone.

Why Contribute to the Memorial and Endowment Fund?

1. Preserving Our Heritage: By contributing to this fund, you are helping to preserve the rich history and spiritual significance of our church for future generations.
2. Ensuring Financial Stability: The endowment aspect of the fund will provide a stable financial foundation, enabling us to meet ongoing operational expenses and continue our mission and outreach efforts.
3. Honoring Loved Ones: This fund allows us to create a lasting memorial for those who have played a significant role in our church community. Contributions can be made in honor of loved ones, ensuring their legacy lives on.

We express our deepest gratitude for your continued support. Every contribution, regardless of size, is a step toward securing the future of our church and honoring the memories we hold dear.

Our next meeting is Monday, February 12th at 4:15 pm.

In faith and fellowship,

The Memorial & Endowment Committee

AN EVANGELICAL MINUTE

When Words Pull At The Heart Strings

It has become time for me to share with you how much "Christ In Our Home", the prayer booklet, means to me. I seem to settle down into my day as each day's message and prayer is short and take only minutes to read. And so often I am amazed as I check out a reading.

Take Sunday, October 29. It started out with the phrase "analysis paralysis" and at first I almost hesitated continuing. And yet choosing a path forward can become too complicated due to too many needs. Make sense? Unsure we spin our wheels and go nowhere.

We are tempted, it continues, to explain to Jesus how to be faithful in complexities. And then the writer chooses words to set us straight on our journey with Jesus: A favorite song from Melanie DeMore calls me forward with Jesus' clarity. "Put one foot in front of the other & lead with love." And following prayer:

Give me the courage to lead with love, that I might follow you faithfully, O' God, Amen. So You See, Amen.

In Christ,

Amen

COVER GIRLS

Cover girls have been busy not only making tie quilts but also nursing covers and baby blankets. The nursing covers and baby blankets have been delivered to the family clinic and Hayward hospital to give out to expecting parents.

We found material we cannot use and scrap material plus pieces of batting make good dog or cat beds. We sew the material together leaving an opening and stuff it with the scrap material and batting. This way we have very little waste. These make great beds for the animals. These have been given to the Human Society to use.

We want to thank all the people who have donated material, sheets, curtains, and crocheting thread which is used to make the quilts. Please no white material.

Women of First Lutheran

Remember to THINK

“Daily Grace” is a daily email you can receive from the Women of the ELCA website with a thought for the day. Recently it was about “What would happen if we started a T.H.I.N.K. movement?” The article was about the acronym THINK which asks us to consider the following before we speak. Is it TTrue, Helpful, Iimportant, Necessary, Kind?

Many times, we don’t take the time to decide if what we are going to say is true or helpful or even important and necessary to say. Don’t we all wish we were all a little kinder and more considerate of each other too? As I listen to the news or read the paper there are times I wish for more truth and kindness. Does it have to be so negative?

Many times, we speak before we listen to others. I know sometimes I quickly draw conclusions without hearing the other person’s story or reasons for feeling the way they do. Would it help me to understand them better? Probably!

As our mission statement says “Let all that you do be done in love.” I Corinthians 16:14
Maybe we should stop and THINK and then speak up in love.

Keep warm
